

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Kevin Walsh
DOCKET NO.: 23-27912.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 32-07-105-030-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Kevin Walsh, the appellant, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $7,796
IMPR.: $22,123
TOTAL: $29,919

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with a one-story, single-family dwelling of masonry construction. The building is 64 years old, it has 2,514 square feet of living area, and it is located on a 25,987 square foot site in Flossmoor, Bloom Township, Cook County. Its features include a partial, unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a two-car garage, two full bathrooms, and a half bath, The subject is classified as a class 2-04 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant asserts overvaluation as the ground for the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information about recent sales of seven suggested comparable properties. Those suggested comparables were sold between February 1, 2021, and April 15, 2022, for amounts ranging from $215,000 to $275,900, or between $78.72 and $139.34 per square foot of living area, land included in the sales prices.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject as $29,919. This assessment reflects a value for the subject property of $299,190, or $119.01 per square foot of living area, land included, under a Cook County ordinance establishing a 10% level of assessment for residential property. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information about four suggested comparable properties but included sales information about only one of them. That property sold for $385,000, or $152.29 per square foot of living area, land included in the sales price, on November 5, 2020.

This case was set for a hearing before an administrative law judge on June 4, 2025, but the parties agreed to waive the hearing and allow this Board to decide the case based on the written and documentary evidence they had submitted.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant asserts overvaluation as a ground for appeal. When market value is the basis of the appeal, the taxpayer must prove the value of the property by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.63(e); Winnebago County Bd. of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Bd., 313 Ill. App. 3d 1038, 1043 (2d Dist. 2000). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds that the appellant failed to meet this burden of proof.

The evidence submitted by the appellant supports the challenged assessment rather than a reduction. The appellant's seven suggested comparable properties sold for between $78.72 and $139.34 per square foot of living area, land included in the sales prices. The subject's assessment reflects a value of $119.01 per square foot of living area, land included. This is within the range suggested by the appellant's suggested comparables, and below the values indicated by the sales prices of five of them. The board of review's suggested sales comparable provides further support for the correctness of the assessment.

Accordingly, the appellant has failed to meet his burden of showing entitlement to relief by a preponderance of the evidence, so a reduction is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
