

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Lawrence Sowa
DOCKET NO.: 23-28093.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 02-07-306-004-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Lawrence Sowa, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $36,332
IMPR.: $58,000
TOTAL: $94,332

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 6,264 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 25 years old. Features of the home include a full basement, central air conditioning, 2 fireplaces and a 4-car garage. The property has a 62,515 square foot site and is located in Inverness, Palatine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-09 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood and from 0.15 to 0.87 of a mile from the subject property. One comparable is also located within the same block as the subject property. The comparables are improved with class 2-09, 2-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 5,553 to 7,154 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 29 to 40 years old. Each comparable has a full basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace, and from a 3-car to a 4-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $44,500 to $55,500 or from $7.33 to $8.82 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the improvement assessment be reduced to $50,425 or $8.05 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $94,333. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $58,000 or $9.26 per square foot of living area. The board of review included a notation without substantive evidence stating the "SUBJECT HAS MULTIPLE LAND RECORDS," which is not relevant to this appeal since the appellant did not appeal the subject's land assessment.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood and within the subject's block, the subject's subarea or along the subject's street and approximately ¼ of a mile from the subject property. The comparables are improved with class 2-09, 2-story dwellings of masonry or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 5,412 to 6,154 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 23 to 37 years old. Each comparable has a full basement with one having finished area, central air conditioning, 1 to 4 fireplaces and either a 3-car or a 4-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $59,547 to $71,965 or from $10.10 to $11.69 per square foot of living area.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted eight comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables #2 and #4 along with the board of review's comparables #3 and #4 which are less similar to the subject in age and/or dwelling size than the other comparables in the record.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the parties' remaining comparables which are overall most similar to the subject in design, age, dwelling size, and some features. These four comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $44,500 to $71,965 or from $7.33 to $11.69 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $58,000 or $9.26 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. After considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
