

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Krzysztof Mendelowski
DOCKET NO.: 23-34440.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 08-15-403-002-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Krzysztof Mendelowski, the appellant, by attorney Andrew S. Dziuk, of Andrew Dziuk, Esq. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $8,343
IMPR.: $27,509
TOTAL: $35,852

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a single-family dwelling of frame and masonry exterior construction with 2,084 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 45 years old. Features of the home include a full basement, a fireplace, and a 2-car garage.¹ The property has a 10,429 square foot site and is located in Arlington Heights, Elk Grove Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood and within 0.56 of a mile from the subject. The comparables are improved with class 2-78, single-family dwellings of frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 2,071 to 2,437 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 50 to 55 years old. Each comparable has a partial or full basement and a 2-car garage. Four comparables each have a fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $25,144 to $28,002 or from $10.32 to $12.89 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the improvement assessment be reduced to $21,506 or $10.32 per square foot of living area.

The appellant provided a copy of the Cook County Board of Review final decision disclosing a total assessment for the subject property of $35,852. The subject has an improvement assessment of $27,509 or $13.20 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" for a different property than the subject property under appeal. Nevertheless, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables, of which the board of review's comparables #1, #3 and #4 are located within the same assessment neighborhood, city and township as the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-78, 2-story or multi-level dwellings of frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,307 to 2,145 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 51 to 54 years old. The board of review reported each comparable has a partial or full basement and a 2-car garage, two comparables each have central air conditioning, and two comparables each have a fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $24,532 to $30,552 or from $13.41 to $18.77 per square foot of living area.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted nine suggested comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparable #1 and board of review's comparable #2 which are less similar to the subject in dwelling size than the other comparables in the record. Moreover, the board of review's comparable #2 is located within a different assessment neighborhood and city than the subject property.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be parties' remaining comparables which overall are located within the subject's assessment neighborhood and are relatively similar to the subject in design, age, dwelling size and/or other features. These seven comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $25,144 to $30,552 or from $12.14 to $14.80 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $27,509 or $13.20 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. After considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
