FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Eloise Landa
DOCKET NO.: 23-38392.001-C-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-05-115-002-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Eloise Landa, the appellant(s), by attorney Daniel J. Farley, of the Law Offices of Terrence Kennedy Jr. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$17,424
IMPR.:	$312,906
TOTAL:	$330,330

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of an 8,712 square foot parcel of land improved with an approximately 112-year-old, three-story, masonry, 22-unit, apartment building containing 18,570 square feet of building area. The property is located in Chicago, West Township and is classified as a class 3 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted four equity comparables located from 2.65 to 8.85 miles from the subject. These comparables are described as three-story, masonry, apartment buildings. They range: in age from 30 to 135 years; in size from 17,436 to 19,101 square feet of building area; in unit numbers from 12 to 32; and in improvement assessment from $3.75 to $4.88 per square foot of building area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the subject's assessment of $330,329 with an improvement assessment of $312,905 or $16.85 per square foot of building area. No further evidence was submitted.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b).

The Board finds the only evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables. These comparables had improvement assessments from $3.75 to $4.88 per square foot of building area. In comparison the subject's improvement assessment of $5.98 per square foot of building area is above this range. However, the Board finds that these comparables are in far proximity to the subject and that the appellant failed to submit any evidence to show their community or market conditions are similar to the subject's. Therefore, the Board finds a comparability analysis cannot be completed. Based on the record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's improvements is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
