

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Nancy Mancine
DOCKET NO.: 23-38519.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-33-210-040-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Nancy Mancine, the appellant, by attorney Brian S. Maher, of Weis, DuBrock, Doody & Maher in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $13,750
IMPR.: $23,975
TOTAL: $37,725

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with a 2-story multi-family building of masonry exterior construction with 2,156 square feet of building area. The building is approximately 124 years old. Features of the building include a full basement and a 2-car garage. The property has a 3,125 square foot site and is located in Chicago, South Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four comparables located within the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject. Three comparables are also located along the same street as the subject. The comparables consist of 2-story, multi-family buildings of masonry or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,920 to 2,024 square feet of building area. The buildings are 131 or 135 years old. Three comparables each have a full basement, and one comparable has a concrete slab foundation. One comparable has a 1.5-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $16,250 to $18,250 or from $8.03 to $9.45 per square foot of building area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment to $19,059 or $8.84 per square foot of building area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $37,725. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $23,975 or $11.12 per square foot of building area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four comparables located within the same assessment neighborhood code and along the same street as the subject. The comparables are also located within the same block or approximately ¼ of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-11, 2-story multi-family buildings of masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,936 to 2,521 square feet of building area. The buildings are 123 or 133 years old. Each comparable has a full basement. Two comparables each have a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $23,250 to $37,250 or from $12.01 to $15.68 per square foot of building area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity, and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted eight equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables #1, #3 and #4 as well as the board of review comparables #1 and #2 due to differences from the subject in building size, foundation type and/or lack of a garage amenity, which is a feature of the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the parties' remaining comparables. These comparables are overall more similar to the subject in location, age, building size, base foundation and features. These three comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $17,250 to $37,250 or from $8.91 to $15.68 per square foot of building area. The subject's improvement assessment of $23,975 or $11.12 per square foot of building area falls within the range established by the best comparables in the record. After considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
