

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Jordan Kardos
DOCKET NO.: 23-39130.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-35-407-025-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Jordan Kardos, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld & Associates, LLC in Northbrook, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $13,275
IMPR.: $35,054
TOTAL: $48,329

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story multi-family building of frame exterior construction with 2,855 square feet of gross building area and which is approximately 124 years old. Features include a full basement, 2 full bathrooms, 2 half-baths, and central air conditioning. The property has a 4,425 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject and within .4 of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-11 buildings of frame exterior construction that are 129 to 135 years old. The buildings range in size from 2,538 to 3,222 square feet of gross building area. Each comparable has a full basement, 2 or 3 full bathrooms, and one comparable also has 2 half-baths. Each building has central air conditioning, and a 1.5-car or a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $20,725 to $23,725 or from $7.36 to $8.17 per square foot of gross building area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $21,841 or $7.65 per square foot of gross building area which represents the average of the comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $48,329. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $35,054 or $12.28 per square foot of gross building area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code and ¼ of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-11 two-story buildings of frame exterior construction which are 123 to 140 years old. The buildings range in size from 2,826 to 3,202 square feet of gross building area. Two comparables have full basements, and one comparable has a crawl-space foundation. Features include 2 or 4 full bathrooms, and one comparable also has 2 half-baths. Comparable #1 has air conditioning and comparable #3 has a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $35,725 to $38,663 or from $12.07 to $13.38 per square foot of gross building area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of seven equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has given reduced weight to the appellant's comparables #2 and #4 as well as board of review comparable #3, due to substantially older ages of 135 and 140 years old and/or differing foundation type, when compared to the subject. The Board has also given reduced weight to appellant's comparable #1 and board of review comparable #1, both of which are approximately 12% larger in building size than the subject building.

On this record, the Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity are appellant's comparable #3 along with board of review comparable #2, which are each most similar to the subject in age, building size, foundation type, and some features. One comparable has a superior/differing bathroom count when compared to the subject necessitating adjustments to make the comparable more similar to the subject. One comparable has a garage which is not a feature of the subject and suggests a downward adjustment for this characteristic and one comparable lacks air conditioning which suggests an upward adjustment to make the building more similar to the subject. The best comparables have improvement assessments of $20,959 and $38,538 or of $7.70 and $13.38 per square foot of gross building area. The subject's improvement assessment of $35,054 or $12.28 per square foot of gross building area is bracketed by the best comparables in this record both in terms of overall improvement assessment and on a per-square-foot of gross building area basis.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables in the record for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
