

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: John Mearsheimer
DOCKET NO.: 23-40339.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 20-14-202-060-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are John Mearsheimer, the appellant, by attorney Dora Cornelio of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $11,935
IMPR.: $55,065
TOTAL: $67,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 1,996 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 61 years old. The property features a full basement with finished area, 1½ bathrooms and central air conditioning. The property has a 2,387 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Hyde Park Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-10, old style row house or townhome, property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables that have the same assessment neighborhood code and property classification code as the subject. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of masonry or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,864 to 2,044 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 115 to 145 years old. Each comparable has a full basement with finished area and 2 bathrooms. Comparable #5 has a fireplace. Two comparables each have a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $25,175 to $31,595 or from $12.53 to $15.58 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $30,638 or $15.35 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $67,000. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $55,065 or $27.59 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables that have the same assessment neighborhood code and property classification code as the subject. The comparables are located within the same block and along the same street as the subject. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction, each containing 1,996 square feet of living area. The dwellings are each 61 years old. Each comparable has a full basement with finished area, 1½ bathrooms and central air conditioning. The comparables each have an improvement assessment of $57,790 or $28.95 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted nine comparable properties for the Board's consideration. The Board has given less weight to the appellant's comparables due to their older dwelling ages and lack of central air conditioning, when compared to the subject. Additionally, the appellant's comparables #3 and #4 each have a garage, unlike the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the four comparables submitted by the board of review comparable, which are located most proximate to the subject and are identical to the subject in dwelling size, design, age and features. The comparables each have an improvement assessment of $57,790 or $28.95 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $55,065 or $27.59 per square foot of living area falls below the assessments of the four best comparables in the record.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence presented.

Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
