

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Tom Hayes
DOCKET NO.: 23-40484.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 28-10-403-019-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Tom Hayes, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,345
IMPR.: $10,715
TOTAL: $13,060

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1.5-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 1,289 square feet of living area.¹ The dwelling is approximately 67 years old. Features of the home include a basement, a fireplace and a 2-car garage. The property has a 6,700 square foot site located in Midlothian, Bremen Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood in Midlothian, Illinois. The comparables consist of class 2-03, 1-story or 1.5-story dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size 1,161 to 1,392 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 65 to 83 years old. The comparables each have a basement, central air conditioning, and 1 or 2 fireplaces. Four comparables each have from a 1-car to a 3.5-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $8,500 to $10,715 or from $6.82 to $8.15 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $9,796 or $7.60 per square foot of living area.

The appellant provided a copy of the Cook County Board of Review final decision disclosing a total assessment for the subject property of $16,476. The appellant disclosed the subject property has an improvement assessment of $14,131 or $10.96 per square foot of living area. The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" for a different docket number and parcel than the subject property under appeal. The board of review submitted information on four comparables located in Crestwood, Illinois and in a different assessment neighborhood than the subject property. The comparables consist of class 2-03, 1.5-story dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 1,396 to 1,503 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 45 to 58 years old. Three comparables each have a crawl space or slab foundation, and one comparable has a basement. Three comparables each have central air conditioning, and each comparable has either a 2-car or a 2.5-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $16,562 to $22,415 or from $11.86 to $14.91 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The parties submitted nine comparable properties for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the board of review's comparables which are located within a different assessment neighborhood and city than the subject property and also differ from the subject in age and/or foundation type.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparable which are located within the same assessment neighborhood and city as the subject. These comparables require adjustments for varying degrees of similarity to the subject in design, age, dwelling size and other features. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $8,500 to $10,715 or from $6.82 and $8.15 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $14,131 or $10.96 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in the record. Based on this record and after considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement is inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
