

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: James Athanasopoulos
DOCKET NO.: 23-41362.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-12-317-014-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are James Athanasopoulos, the appellant, by attorney Peter D. Verros, of Verros Berkshire, PC in Oakbrook Terrace; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds A Reduction in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $6,888
IMPR.: $38,291
TOTAL: $45,179

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 2,026 square feet, two-story masonry building perched on a 2,870 square feet parcel in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County comprises the subject property. The 99-year-old, class 2-11 residence per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance featured two bathrooms, no air conditioning, a detached garage, and a full basement.¹

The appellant based the petition on assessment inequity, contending that the assessment should be lowered to $15.70 per improvement square foot. As evidence of nonuniformity, the appellant nominated four class 2-11 residences within 1.85 miles of the subject. These suggested comparables featured a two-car garage, two bathrooms, no air conditioning, and a full basement.

¹ The appellant provided internally inconsistent information about the subject's garage size. Upon holistically reviewing the entire record, the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds this discrepancy immaterial.

These potential comparator improvements were between 102 and 114 years in building age; 1,575 and 2,188 square feet in size; and $11.51 and $17.80 per living square foot in assessment.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $39,142, or $19.32 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $46,030 total subject assessment, the county board of review proposed four masonry improvements within a quarter mile of the subject as equity comparables. The board of review’s preferred comparators all featured a full basement, a two-car garage, no air conditioning, and two bathrooms. These properties were 97 to 103 years in building age; 2,220 to 2,532 square feet in living area; and $18.20 to $21.77 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Prior to the scheduled hearing before PTAB, the parties agreed to waive hearing and have the appeal decided based on the written submissions.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When the ground for appeal is unequal treatment in the assessment, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment should consist of assessment documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties of compelling proximity to, and with a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant met this burden of proof.

In this record, board of review comparable #1 and appellant comparables #1 through #3 compared most favorably to the subject and therefore serve as the best benchmarks for assessment equity. Board of review comparable #1 featured more living and garage space than the subject but otherwise tracked the subject’s attributes. Appellant comparables #2 and #3 likewise differed from the subject with larger improvements and garages than the subject. Finally, appellant comparable #1 was closest to the subject in living area but also had a larger garage. Given these properties, the subject would be equitably assessed around $11.51 to $18.91 per living square foot. Because the subject assessment of $19.32 per improvement square foot is greater than the highest assessment of the most comparable properties, PTAB concludes the appellant showed inequitable subject assessment by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction in the total subject assessment to $45,179 is merited.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
