

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Garry Huebner
DOCKET NO.: 23-42526.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-33-129-036-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Garry Huebner, the appellant, by attorney Brian S. Maher of Weis, DuBrock, Doody & Maher in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $19,775
IMPR.: $63,225
TOTAL: $83,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 1,452 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 54 years old. Features of the home include a full basement that is finished with a recreation room,¹ central air conditioning, 2½ bathrooms, two fireplaces and a one-car garage. The property has a 1,582 square foot site and is located in Chicago, North Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-95 property, a townhome or row house up to 62 years of age, under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables that have the same assessment neighborhood code and property classification code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,254 to 1,560 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 51 or 52 years old. The comparables each have a full basement. No data was provided by the appellant concerning finished basement area. Each comparable has central air conditioning and either 1½, 2 or 2½ bathrooms. Three comparables each have a fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $32,950 to $50,275 or from $26.28 to $32.97 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $44,997 or $30.99 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $83,000. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $63,225 or $43.54 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables that have the same assessment neighborhood code and property classification code as the subject. The comparables are located within the same block as the subject and one comparable is also located adjacent to subject property on the same street. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction containing either 1,254 or 1,452 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 49 or 52 years old. Each comparable has a full basement that is finished with a recreation room, central air conditioning and 2½ bathrooms. Comparable #1 has two fireplaces and a one-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $56,100 to $64,050 or from $44.11 to $48.04 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted eight comparable properties for the Board's consideration. The Board finds all the comparables are similar to the subject in location and relatively similar, if not identical to the subject in dwelling size, design and age. However, the Board finds seven comparables lack a garage, a feature of the subject; seven comparables have fewer fireplaces than the subject; the appellant's four comparables were not reported to have basement finish, a feature of the subject; and two of the appellant's comparables have a fewer number of bathrooms, when compared to the subject. These differences suggest upward adjustments would be required to make the comparables more equivalent to the subject. Nevertheless, the comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $32,950 to $64,050 or from $26.28 to $48.04 per square foot of living area. Most weight was given to board of review comparable #1, which is identical to the subject in dwelling size, design, age and features and it has an improvement assessment of $64,050 or $44.11 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $63,225 or $43.54 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in the record and is well supported by the most similar comparable in the record, board of review comparable #1. Based on this record and after considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
