

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: William Hutchinson
DOCKET NO.: 23-48271.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-36-222-017-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are William Hutchinson, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $9,440
IMPR.: $37,641
TOTAL: $47,081

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 1,733 square feet, multi-level masonry building on a 4,720 square feet lot in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County constitutes the subject property. The 65-year-old, class 2-03 residence per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance included three bathrooms, central air conditioning, a full basement, and a two-car garage.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the petition, arguing that the subject assessment must be lowered to $17.20 per improvement square foot to be equitable. To show the subject was not uniformly assessed, the appellant put forth three class 2-03 improvements within .69 miles of the subject as assessment benchmarks. The appellant's proposed comparators featured no garage to a two-car garage, no air conditioning except in submission #2, one or 1.5 bathrooms, and a full or partial basement. These improvements were 71 to 79 years in building age; 1,457 to 1,689 in living square footage; and $16.03 to $17.84 per square foot in assessment.

The county board of review maintained in its “Notes on Appeal” that the subject improvement was fairly assessed at $37,641, or $21.72 per living square foot. In defense of the $47,081 total subject assessment, the board of review introduced into evidence four masonry properties as equity comparables. The county board of review’s selections featured a full basement, one to 2.5 bathrooms, air conditioning in submissions #1 and #4, a full basement, and a one- to two-car garage. These improvements were 63 to 81 years in age; 1,611 to 1,648 square feet in area; and $22.78 to $25.83 per living square foot in assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires that real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation, however; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When a property tax appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment, appellants must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation for the year in question of demonstrably similar properties with compelling proximity to, and a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant fell short of satisfying this burden of proof.

As the only properties in evidence that approached the subject’s value by virtue of their air conditioning inclusion, board of review comparables #1 and #4 and appellant comparable #2 constitute the range of equitable assessments in this record. Each of these comparators featured less living space; bathroom functionality; and, in the case of board of review comparables #1 and #4, smaller garages than the subject. Based on this evidence, the subject improvement would be equitably assessed between $17.72 and $25.83 per living square foot. Because the subject’s $21.72 per improvement square foot assessment falls within this range, PTAB concludes the appellant failed to show by clear and convincing evidence that the subject assessment was inequitable or that a reduction thereof is merited.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
