Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of two adjacent parcels improved with a two-story dwelling of frame construction containing 2,088 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 125 years old. Features of the property include a full basement with a recreation room, two fireplaces, two bathrooms, and a 2-car garage. The property has a combined 6,600 square foot site located in Melrose Park, Proviso Township, Cook County. The subject is a class 2-05 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of this argument the appellant submitted evidence disclosing the subject property was purchased on February 5, 2021, for an allocated price of $201,444. The appellant completed Section IV – Recent Sale Data of the appeal identifying the seller as Steven Radtke, as trustee of the Bankruptcy Estate of Michele Alexandre, Debtor. The appellant indicated the parties were not family members or related corporations, the property was sold through a realtor, Millennium Properties, Real Estate, Inc., and the property had been advertised for sale.

To document the transaction the appellant submitted a copy of the Purchase Agreement dated December 28, 2020, between Steven R. Radtke, not individually, but solely in his capacity as Chapter 7 Trustee of the bankruptcy estate of Michelle Alexandre ("Seller") and Country Holdings 5 LLC ("Purchaser"). The agreement explained that Michelle Alexandre had filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Illinois. The Bankruptcy Court subsequently converted Alexandre's Chapter 11 case to a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. Radtke is the is the duly appointed, qualified and acting case Trustee of Alexandre's bankruptcy estate. The agreement explained that Alexandre has an interest in 9 properties, including the subject property. The subject property along with four other properties were encumbered by a blanket commercial mortgage held by Huntington National Bank. Subject to the approval of the Bankruptcy Court, Radtke agreed to sell, and Country Holdings 5 LLC agreed to purchase the 9 properties, subject to prorations, for a purchase price of $1,850,000. Exhibit A of the Purchase Agreement contained the allocation of the purchase prices among the 9 properties with the subject property receiving an allocated price of $201,444.

To further document the transaction the appellant submitted a copy of the settlement statement dated February 5, 2021, disclosing the parties to the transaction and the purchase price of $201,444. The settlement statement also disclosed that a commission in the amount of $10,072.20 was paid to Millennium Properties Real Estate, Inc.

Based on this evidence the appellant requested the subject's combined total assessment be reduced to $20,145 to reflect the purchase price. The appellant submitted a copy of the final decision issued by the board of review disclosing the subject parcels had a total combined assessment of $28,970 reflecting a market value of $289,700 or $138.75 per square foot of living area, including land, when applying the level of assessments for class 2 property of 10% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" and information on four comparable sales with the same classification code and neighborhood code as the subject property to support its contention of the correct assessment of the subject property. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of frame, masonry, or frame and masonry exterior construction that range in size from 1,804 to 1,925 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 67 to 113 years old. Each property has a full or partial basement with two having finished areas, 2 or 2½ bathrooms, and a 2-car or 4-car garage. Two of the comparables have central air conditioning. The comparables have sites ranging in size from 3,094 to 6,600 square feet of land area. These properties sold from November 2020 to December 2023 for prices ranging from $307,000 to $397,000 or from $170.18 to $206.99 per square foot of living area, including land.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The appellant argued the subject's assessment should be reduced to reflect the February 2021 purchase price of $201,444. The Board gives little weight to the sale of the subject property in establishing the assessment of the subject property for the 2023 tax year. First, the evidence disclosed that the sale of the subject property was the result of a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code calling into question the arm's length nature of the transaction and whether the resulting purchase price is reflective of fair cash value. Second, the sale of the subject occurred approximately two years prior to the assessment date at issue further calling into question whether the purchase price is reflective of fair cash value as of January 1, 2023. Third, the Purchase Agreement disclosed that the sale of the subject property was part of a transaction involving eight other properties owned by the bankruptcy debtor. The total purchase price for the nine properties was $1,850,000. The parties then allocated the prices among the properties that sold. The record is void of any evidence as to how the allocation of the purchase price was made among the nine properties so as to establish the allocated prices are reflective of the fair cash value of the real estate for each property. For these reasons the Board gives little weight to the February 2021 sale of the subject property.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value in the record to be the board of review comparable sales #1, #2 and #3 that are improved with two-story dwellings that range in size from 1,900 to 1,925 square feet of living area and age from 67 to 113 years old. These properties sold closer in time to the assessment date at issue than the sale of the subject property and there was no showing that called into question the arm's length nature of these sales. These properties are also similar to the subject in features. These three comparables sold for prices ranging from $340,000 to $397,000 or from $176.62 to $206.99 per square foot of living area, including land. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $289,700 or $138.75 per square foot of living area, including land, which is below the range established by the best comparable sales in this record. The Board gives less weight to board of review comparable sale #4 as this property sold in November 2020, not as proximate in time to the assessment date as the best sales in this record.

Based on this record the Board finds the subject's assessment is reflective of the property's fair cash value and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
