

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Gail Lampariello
DOCKET NO.: 23-49878.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 18-06-423-054-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Gail Lampariello, the appellant, by attorney Dora Cornelio, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $13,180
IMPR.: $168,286
TOTAL: $181,466

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 6,060 square feet, two-story masonry building on a 13,180 square feet parcel in Western Springs, Lyons Township, Cook County comprises the subject property. The 12-year-old, class 2-09 property per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance featured a two-car garage, central air conditioning, at least six full bathrooms, and a full basement.¹

Arguing the subject improvement was not equitably assessed, the appellant contends the assessment rate should be $22.24 per improvement square foot to achieve uniformity with like properties. To support the assessment inequity argument, the appellant placed into evidence five class 2-09 properties with at least three bathrooms in the subject's neighborhood. The appellant's suggested comparables all featured a 2.5- or three-car garage, a full basement, and air conditioning except in submission #1. These potential comparators varied from 15 to 68 years in building age; from 5,019 to 5,801 square feet in improvement size; and from $21.55 to $23.38 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $168,286, or $27.77 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $181,466 total subject assessment, the county board of review nominated three two-story improvements of unknown proximity to the subject as equity comparables. The board of review’s preferred comparators all featured a full basement, air conditioning, at least 3.5 bathrooms, and a two- or 2.5-car garage. These properties were 13 to 22 years in building age; 5,123 to 5,769 in living square footage; and $30.42 to $40.84 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment is the basis of a property tax appeal, appellants must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should comprise assessment documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties with compelling proximity to, and a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the comparables to the subject. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not surmount this burden of proof.

Of the parties’ submissions, only board of review comparable #1 and appellant comparable #3 were within 290 square feet of the subject’s living area. Because these comparables were of unknown proximity to the subject, and no other property in evidence sufficiently compared to the subject in terms of attributes, PTAB concludes the appellant did not provide sufficiently clear and convincing evidence that the subject assessment was inequitable or that a reduction thereof is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
