

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Mahmood U. Rehman
DOCKET NO.: 23-51552.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-20-236-004-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Mahmood U. Rehman, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $6,494
IMPR.: $22,706
TOTAL: $29,200

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.¹

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 1,061 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 62 years old. Features include a partial basement, central air conditioning, and a 1.5-car garage. The property has a 4,996 square foot site and is located in Morton Grove, Niles Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted five equity comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood code. The comparables are improved with class 1-story, 2-03 dwellings of masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,032 to 1,240 square feet of living area. The homes range in age from 60 to 72 years old. Three comparables each have a crawl space foundation and two comparables each have a full or partial basement. Two comparables each have central air conditioning. Each comparable has one or two fireplaces. Four comparables have from a 1.5-car to a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $16,278 to $19,617 or from $15.50 to $15.86 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $16,721.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $29,200. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $22,706 or $21.40 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood code and on the same tax block as the subject. The comparables are improved with 1-story, class 2-03 dwellings of masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,059 to 1,077 square feet of living area. The homes are either 64 or 65 years old. Each comparable has a full basement. Three comparables each have central air conditioning. One comparable has one fireplace. Two comparables each have a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $22,834 to $25,438 or from $21.44 to $24.02 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The record contains nine suggested equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables which are located less proximate to the subject than the board of review comparables which are located on the subject's tax block. Further, three of the appellant's comparables feature crawl space foundations, in contrast to the subject's partial basement.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review comparables which are most similar to the subject in location, design/class, age, and dwelling size with varying degrees of similarity in other features. The best comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $22,834 to $25,438 or from $21.44 to $24.02 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $22,706 or $21.40 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the best comparables in this record. After considering adjustments to the comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
