

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: JOAQUIN FONTE
DOCKET NO.: 23-52232.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 18-07-108-024-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are JOAQUIN FONTE, the appellant, by attorney Brian P. Liston, of the Law Offices of Liston & Tsantilis, P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $15,309
IMPR.: $55,177
TOTAL: $70,486

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2,341 square feet, two-story building of frame and masonry construction situated on an 11,340 square feet lot in Hinsdale, Lyons Township, Cook County. The 53-year-old, class 2-78 property per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance included 2.5 bathrooms, a full basement, air conditioning, and a two-car garage.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal, arguing that the assessment should be reduced to $22.59 per improvement square foot. To show that the subject assessment is not uniform, the appellant proposed three class 2-78 properties within one mile of the subject as equity comparables. These suggested comparators had two or 2.5 bathrooms, a two-car garage, air conditioning except in property #3, and a full basement. The appellant's selections further ranged between 48 and 62 years in building age; 2,391 and 2,552 in living square footage; and $21.98 and $23.43 per improvement square foot in assessment.

The board of review responded that the subject improvement was fairly assessed at $55,177, or $23.57 per living square foot in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $70,486 total subject assessment, the county board of review offered information about four two-story properties in the subject’s subarea as assessment benchmarks. The board of review’s preferred comparables all featured two to 2.5 bathrooms, air conditioning, and a full or partial basement. These improvements were 48 to 55 years old; 2,256 to 2,488 square feet in area; and $24.44 to $27.43 per living square foot in assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation, however; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When a property tax appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment, appellants must prove assessment inequity by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties of compelling proximity to, and with a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not satisfy this burden of proof.

In this record, board of review comparables #1 and #2 and appellant comparable #1 most resemble the subject property and therefore comprise the best evidence of assessment equity. Board of review comparable #1 contained a marginally smaller improvement and basement but otherwise mirrored the subject’s attributes. By contrast, both board of review comparable #2 and appellant comparable #1 featured slightly more living area than the subject but otherwise matched the subject’s amenities, though appellant comparable #1 was further from the subject than the other comparators. Based on these properties, the subject would be equitably assessed from $21.98 to $27.25 per improvement square foot. As the subject’s $23.57 per improvement square foot assessment lands inside this range, PTAB finds the appellant did not produce the requisite evidence to justify a reduction in the subject assessment.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
