

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: David Kidder
DOCKET NO.: 23-53050.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 18-06-415-008-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are David Kidder, the appellant, by attorney Jeremy Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld & Associates, LLC in Northbrook; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $7,050
IMPR.: $62,588
TOTAL: $69,638

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2,345 square feet, two-story frame building on a 7,050 square feet lot in Western Springs, Lyons Township, Cook County. The 94-year-old, class 2-06 residence under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance featured 2.5 bathrooms, air conditioning, a two-car garage, and a full basement.

The appellant bases the petition on assessment inequity, contending that the assessment should be lowered to $25.00 per improvement square foot. As evidence of nonuniformity, the appellant nominated four class 2-06 residences within .3 miles of the subject. These suggested comparables featured a one- to 2.5-car garage, two to 2.5 bathrooms, air conditioning, and a full or partial basement. These potential comparator improvements were between 73 and 133 years in building age; 2,319 and 2,668 square feet in size; and $24.18 and $25.80 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $62,588, or $26.69 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $69,638 total subject assessment, the county board of review proposed four two-story improvements within a quarter mile of the subject as equity comparables. The board of review’s preferred comparators all featured a full or partial basement, a two-car garage, air conditioning, and two or 2.5 bathrooms. These properties were 81 to 103 years in building age; 2,241 to 2,598 square feet in living area; and $26.80 to $29.43 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When the ground for appeal is unequal treatment in the assessment, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment should consist of documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties of compelling proximity to, and with a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant fell short of satisfying this burden of proof.

Of the parties’ submissions, board of review comparable #1 and appellant comparables #2 and #4 best approximated the subject’s attributes and thereby comprise the range of equitable subject assessments. Board of review comparable #1 featured a larger improvement and extra fireplace, placing it at the top of the equitable range. Meanwhile, appellant comparable #4 had a larger improvement and garage, which it offset with a worse basement than the subject. Finally, appellant comparable #2 anchors the bottom of the $24.50 to $26.80 per improvement square foot range because it was marginally smaller than the subject and lacked the subject’s half bathroom and some of its garage space. Because the subject improvement’s $26.69 per living square foot assessment lands inside this range, PTAB concludes the appellant did not demonstrate inequitable subject assessment by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction commensurate with the appellant’s request is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
