

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Darnil Rouail
DOCKET NO.: 23-53606.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-35-417-048-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Darnil Rouail, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,999
IMPR.: $25,001
TOTAL: $30,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 1,392 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 65 years old. Features of the home include a partial basement, 1½ bathrooms and central air conditioning. The property has a 3,734 square foot site and is located in Lincolnwood, Niles Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-10 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.¹

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement assessment as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood code and within 0.38 of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-10, 2-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction containing 1,370 or 1,610 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 77 or 81 years old. The homes have crawl space foundations, 1 or 1½ bathrooms and a fireplace. Four comparables each have central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments of $19,500 and $22,500 or $13.98 and $14.23 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the improvement assessment be reduced to $19,739 or $14.18 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its “Board of Review Notes on Appeal” disclosing the total assessment for the subject property of $30,000. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $25,001 or $17.96 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four comparables located within the same assessment neighborhood and block as the subject. Two comparables are also located along the subject’s same street. The comparables consist of class 2-10, 2-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction containing 1,392 square feet of living area. The homes are each 64 years old. Two homes have full or partial basements, and two homes have concrete slab foundations. Each comparable has 1½ or 2 bathrooms, and three comparables each have central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $25,000 to $27,000 or from $17.96 to $19.40 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject’s assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The record contains nine equity comparables for the Board’s consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant’s comparables as well as the board of review comparables #3 and #4 which are less similar to the subject in age and/or foundation type than the other comparables in the record, unlike the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review’s comparables #1 and #2 that are located with the same assessment neighborhood and block as the subject. These comparables are identical to the subject in design, age, dwelling size, and most features, except for the larger bathroom count and lack of central air conditioning of the board of review’s comparable #1. These two comparables have improvement assessments of $26,000 and $27,000 or $18.68 and $19.40 per square foot of living area. The subject’s improvement assessment of $25,001 or $17.96 per square foot of living area falls below the two best comparables in the record. After considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
