

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Keyur Shah
DOCKET NO.: 23-54466.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 18-07-105-028-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Keyur Shah, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $40,500
IMPR.: $197,044
TOTAL: $237,544

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2023 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 5,184 square feet, two-story structure of frame and masonry construction situated on a 30,000 square feet lot in Hinsdale, Lyons Township, Cook County. The five-year-old, class 2-09 residence under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance featured six full and two half bathrooms, air conditioning, a 3.5-car garage, and a full basement. The subject last sold in December 2020 for $3,475,000.

The appellant based the petition on assessment inequity, contending that the assessment should be lowered to $28.86 per improvement square foot. As evidence of nonuniformity, the appellant nominated five class 2-09 residences within .70 miles of the subject. These suggested comparables featured a three- or 3.5-car garage, at least 3.5 bathrooms, air conditioning, and a full or partial basement. These potential comparator improvements were between nine and 25 years in building age; 5,098 and 5,927 square feet in size; and $27.92 and $29.68 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $197,044, or $38.01 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $237,544 total subject assessment, the county board of review proposed four two-story improvements in the subject’s subarea as equity comparables. The board of review’s preferred comparators all featured a full or partial basement, no garage to a 3.5-car garage, at least four full and two half bathrooms, and air conditioning. These properties were two to 17 years in building age; 4,328 to 5,884 square feet in living area; and $39.53 to $44.78 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When the ground for appeal is unequal treatment in the assessment, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment should consist of documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties of compelling proximity to, and with a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant fell short of satisfying this burden of proof.

As the properties most similar to the subject improvement in size, board of review comparables #2 and #3 and appellant comparable #5 serve as the best benchmarks for assessment equity. Board of review comparable #3 contains a smaller improvement with two fewer full bathrooms and no garage relative to the subject, rendering the comparator inferior to the subject in quality, yet with a higher improvement assessment. Board of review comparable #2 meanwhile closely matched the subject’s attributes except that it lacked some of the subject’s living space. Appellant comparable #5 similarly featured a smaller improvement with less bathroom utility and an inferior basement relative to the subject. Given the evidence in record, the equitable assessment range for the subject improvement runs from $29.68 to $44.78 per living square foot. Because the $38.01 per improvement square foot subject assessment lands inside this range, PTAB concludes the appellant did not demonstrate inequitable subject assessment by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction commensurate with the appellant’s request is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
