

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Kim Prieto
DOCKET NO.: 24-00553.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 12-18-101-100

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Kim Prieto, the appellant, by attorney Arden Edelcup, of Tax Appeals Lake County, in Lake Zurich, and the Lake County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Lake County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $43,645
IMPR.: $142,548
TOTAL: $186,193

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Lake County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 2,598 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 1995. Features of the home include an unfinished basement, 2 full bathrooms, 2 half-baths, central air conditioning, two fireplaces, and a 420 square foot garage. The property has a 5,227 square foot site and is located in Lake Bluff, Shields Township, Lake County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject and within .32 of a mile from the subject. Each comparable consists of a two-story dwelling of frame exterior construction. The homes were built from 1995 to 1997 and each home contains 2,598 square feet of living area. Each comparable has an unfinished basement of 1,314 square feet of building area.

Features include 2½ or 3½ bathrooms, and a 420 square foot garage. Four homes each have central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $109,397 to $132,351 or from $42.11 to $50.94 per square foot of living area.

Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $129,900 or $50.00 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $186,193. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $142,548 or $54.87 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on five equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject. Each comparable consists of a two-story dwelling of frame exterior construction. The homes were built from 1994 to 1997, and each home contains 2,598 square feet of living area. Each comparable has an unfinished 1,314 square foot basement, 2 or 3 full bathrooms, 1 or 2 half-baths. Each dwelling has central air conditioning, and a 420 square foot garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $140,936 to $144,673 or from $54.25 to $55.69 per square foot of living area.

Based on the foregoing, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of ten equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has given reduced weight to appellant's comparable #1, which lacks air conditioning which is a feature of the subject and a feature of the other comparables in the record.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables #2 through #5 along with the board of review comparables, each of which are located in the subject's neighborhood and identical to the subject in dwelling size, unfinished basement, air conditioning feature, and garage size. The only differences between these nine best comparables and the subject are slightly varying ages and differences in full and half-bath count. Each of the four best comparables presented by the appellant necessitate upward adjustments in half-bath count and two comparables necessitated downward adjustments in full bathroom count to make the properties more equivalent to the subject. Appellant's comparable #5 is identical to the subject in age and the remaining three appellant comparables necessitate adjustments for differences in age. Four of the board of review comparables necessitate upward adjustments for inferior half-bath count and three comparables necessitate downward adjustments for superior full bath count. Each of the board of review comparables necessitate adjustments for differences in age when compared to the subject. The best nine comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $112,259 to $144,673 or from $43.21 to $55.69 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $142,548 or $54.87 per square foot of living area falls within the range of the best comparables in this record both in terms of overall improvement assessment and on a per-square-foot of living area basis, which the Board finds to be logical given necessary adjustments for differences in age, full bathroom count and/or half-bath count when compared to the subject.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on the foregoing and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables in order to make them more equivalent to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
