

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Emily Crutchfield
DOCKET NO.: 24-01907.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-06-401-022

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Emily Crutchfield, the appellant, by attorney David Kieta, of Kieta Law LLC in Winfield; and the Lake County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Lake County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $35,411
IMPR.: $124,543
TOTAL: $159,954

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Lake County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 2,655 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 1990 and is approximately 34 years old. Features of the home include a basement with finished area, central air conditioning and a 483 square foot garage. The property has an approximately 8,484 square foot site and is located in Vernon Hills, Vernon Township, Lake County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity, with respect to the improvement assessment, as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables located in the same assessment neighborhood code and within 0.61 of a mile from the subject. The comparables are improved with 2-story dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 2,499 to 2,660 square feet of living area. The homes range in age from 31 to 35 years old. Each comparable has a basement, with one having finished area. Each dwelling has central air conditioning, a fireplace and a garage ranging in size from 400 to 497 square feet of building area. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $79,302 to $116,114 or from $31.73 to $43.93 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $108,510 or $40.87 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $159,954. The subject has an improvement assessment of $124,543 or $46.91 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same assessment neighborhood code and within 0.38 of a mile from the subject property. The comparables are improved with 2-story dwellings of frame exterior construction each with 2,643 square feet of living area and built in 1990. Each comparable has a basement with finished area, central air conditioning and a 497 square foot garage. Three comparables each have one fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $124,107 to $124,250 or from $46.96 to $47.01 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments, for the assessment year in question, of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted nine equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to appellant comparables #1, #2, #4 and #5 which lack finished basement, a feature of the subject property.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant comparable #3 and the board of review's comparables which are more similar to the subject in location, age, design, dwelling size and features. These comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $113,024 to $124,250 or from $42.76 to $47.01 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $124,543 or $46.91 per square foot of living area falls just above the range established by the best comparables in this record on an overall improvement assessment basis and within the range on a per square foot basis. After considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex

Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which, appears to exist on the basis of the evidence in this record.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
