

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Christian Walker
DOCKET NO.: 24-04198.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 02-10-211-061

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Christian Walker, the appellant, by attorney David Kieta, of Kieta Law LLC, in Winfield, and the DuPage County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the DuPage County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $42,843
IMPR.: $140,438
TOTAL: $183,281

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the DuPage County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of brick and frame exterior construction with 2,408 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 1993 and is approximately 31 years old. Features of the home include a basement which is partially finished, 3½ bathrooms, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a two-car garage. The property has a 12,438 square foot site and is located in Roselle, Bloomingdale Township, DuPage County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on six equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code and within .12 of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of two-story dwellings of brick and frame exterior construction which range in age from 37 to 40 years old. The homes range in size from 2,321 to 2,740 square feet of living area. Each home has an unfinished basement, 2½ bathrooms, central air conditioning, a fireplace, and a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $121,488 to $137,322 or from $50.12 to $53.50 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $124,502 or $51.70 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $183,281. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $140,438 or $58.32 per square foot of living area.

In response to the appeal, the board of review submitted a memorandum asserting that the appellant's comparables are each similar to the subject with the exception that none of these comparables have finished basements like the subject.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables along with underlying property characteristics sheets. The comparables are located in the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables consist of two-story dwellings of brick and frame exterior construction which range from 36 to 40 years old. The homes range in size from 1,936 to 2,701 square feet of living area. Each home has a basement with finished area, 2½ or 3½ bathrooms, central air conditioning, a fireplace, and a two-car or a three-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $114,424 to $155,102 or from $57.42 to $59.10 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence and argument, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of nine equity comparables in support of their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has given reduced weight to board of review comparables #2 and #3, due to differences of 19% or more in dwelling size when compared to the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's comparables along with board of review comparable #1, which are each relatively similar to the subject in location, design, dwelling size, and some features. Upward adjustments to each of the appellant's comparables and board of review comparable #1 are necessary to account for the subject's newer age. In addition, further upward adjustments to the appellant's comparables are necessary to account for the subject's finished basement and differing bathroom count. These seven comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $121,488 to $155,102 or from $50.12 to $57.42 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $140,438 or $58.32 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in terms of overall improvement assessment and slightly above the range on a per-square-foot of living area basis. Given the subject's superior age of 31 years old in comparison to each of the seven best comparables in the record, the Board finds the subject's slightly higher assessment on a per-square-foot basis to be logical.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
