

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Jeffrey Miller
DOCKET NO.: 24-20465.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-35-202-040-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Jeffrey Miller, the appellant, by attorney Dora Cornelio, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $22,522
IMPR.: $51,026
TOTAL: $73,548

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 3,368 square feet, two-story masonry building situated on a 20,475 square feet parcel in Riverside of Riverside Township, Cook County comprises the subject property. The 111-year-old, class 2-06 residence per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance contained an attached 1.5-car garage, three bathrooms, air conditioning, and a full basement.

The appellant pleads assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal and requests the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) reduce the subject improvement assessment to $10.85 per living square foot. As evidence of subject assessment nonuniformity, the appellant presented five class 2-06 properties in the subject's neighborhood. These suggested comparables included one to three bathrooms, a full basement, and a one- to 2.5-car garage. The appellant's selections spanned 65 to 136 years in building age; 2,587 to 4,070 square feet in improvement area; and $10.46 to $11.55 per square foot in improvement assessment.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $51,026, or $15.15 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.”¹ In defense of the $73,548 total subject assessment, the county board of review proposed four two-story improvements within a quarter mile of the subject as assessment comparables. The county board of review’s preferred comparators both included a full or partial basement, air conditioning, and a one- or two-car garage. These properties were 100 to 111 years in improvement age; 3,069 to 3,463 square feet in area; and $15.38 to $19.66 per improvement square foot in assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment is the basis of a property tax appeal, appellants must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should comprise assessment documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties with compelling proximity to, and a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not surmount this burden of proof.

In this record, the appellant submitted properties that varied drastically in either improvement square footage or building age, rendering none of the appellant’s properties comparable for property tax purposes. By contrast, board of review comparables #1, #2, and #4 were similar to the subject improvement in living area, fireplace count, and air conditioning inclusion. Based on these comparators, the subject would be equitably assessed between $15.38 and $19.66 per improvement square foot. Because the subject’s $15.15 per improvement square foot assessment is lower than the comparables’ assessments, PTAB finds the appellant did not provide sufficiently clear and convincing evidence that the subject assessment was inequitable or that a reduction thereof is justified.

¹ PTAB observes that in its “Notes on Appeal,” the county board of review referenced the 2024 decision from which the appellant petitions. PTAB accordingly adopts the total assessment value reflected in that decision, minor discrepancies in the “Notes on Appeal” notwithstanding.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
