

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Stjepan Vujica
DOCKET NO.: 24-22369.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 11-31-213-006-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Stjepan Vujica, the appellant(s), by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $15,480
IMPR.: $27,506
TOTAL: $42,986

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of an approximately 116-year-old two-story dwelling with 1,884 square feet of living area of frame construction. Features of the home include a full basement and two dwelling units. The property has a 6,880 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Rogers Park Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four comparable sales. The comparables are located 0.21 miles to 0.33 miles away. The comparables are 114- to 141-year-old class 2-11 two-story residences with frame or masonry construction. The comparables were sold between January 2022 and September 2023 for sale prices between $260,000 and $430,000. The comparables have sale prices per square foot between $141.84 and $159.71. The appellant is requesting a total assessment of $26,740.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $42,986. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $429,860 or $169.85 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables. The Board did not consider these comparables since the appellant filed this appeal based on comparable sales, yet the board of review did not provide sale information for any comparables. The board of review is requesting that the current assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be only appellant's comparable #1. As stated above, the Board did not consider the board of review's comparables since they did not provide sale information. However, the appellant's comparables, aside from comparable #1 are all significantly larger than the subject. The appellant has the burden of showing overvaluation by preponderance of the evidence and failed to do so based on their submitted comparables. Based on this evidence the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
