FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Mark Domitrovich
DOCKET NO.: 24-26352.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-06-210-004-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Mark Domitrovich, the appellant, by attorney Scott Shudnow, of Shudnow & Shudnow, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$19,200
IMPR.:	$61,000
TOTAL:	$80,200

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of land totaling 2,400 square feet improved with an approximately 122-year-old, two-story frame and masonry constructed dwelling containing 2,268[1] square feet of building area. Features of the subject include two bedrooms, three bathrooms, a roof deck and a two-car garage. The property is in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County and is classified as 2-05 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

[1] The board of review's notes on appeal states the subject contains 1,960 square feet of building area but as the record contains evidence that the subject was physically inspected and professionally measured for the appraisal, the board finds the subject contains 2,268 square feet of building area.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted an appraisal which estimated the subject's market value as of January 1, 2024, of $802,000. The appraiser utilized sales comparison approach to value to estimate the subject's market value. The appraiser opined that the highest and best use of the property as improved is its current use.

Under the sales comparison approach, the appraiser analyzed five sales. The sales properties are described as two or two and a half-story, masonry or frame and masonry dwellings ranging in age from 122 to 145 years, in size from 2,057 to 2,600 square feet of building area and sold for prices ranging from $277.88 to $376.05 per square foot. After adjustments for pertinent factors such as financing, construction, condition, gross living area, efficiency items, and fireplaces, the appraiser opined a value for the subject under the sales comparison approach of $802,000, rounded.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the subject's assessment of $88,834 which reflects a market value of $888,340 when applying the level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10%.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three comparable sales located in the same neighborhood and within a quarter mile or in the same subarea as the subject. The comparable properties have sites that range in size from 2,880 to 3,300 square feet of land area and are improved with two-story class 2-05 buildings of masonry construction ranging in size from 1,368 to 1,980 square feet of building area. The buildings are from 128 to 137 years old and sold from August 2023 to July 2024 for prices ranging from $975,000 to $1,295,000 or from $613.64 to $778.25 per square foot of building area, land included. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the subject's assessment be confirmed.

In rebuttal the appellant submitted a brief outlining that the board of review's unadjusted raw sales data lack analysis and profession adjustments as well as MLS data sheets were not submitted that would show condition and finishes for comparison. The appellant also noted the board of review did not address the contention of an incorrect building square footage in the assessor's records.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c).

The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the appraisal submitted by the appellant. The Board finds the appellant submitted what appears to be a credible appraisal report with reasonable and logical adjustments for differences from the subject which was not challenged by the board of review. The three comparable sales presented by the board of review lacked adjustments for differences when compared to the subject property. The subject's current assessment reflects a market value of $888,340, which is higher than the appraised value. Based on the evidence presented, the Board finds the subject property is overvalued and a reduction commensurate with the appellant's request is warranted. Since market value has been established the level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance shall apply. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(c)(2)).

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
