FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Andrew Loulousis
DOCKET NO.: 24-28679.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-36-101-012-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Andrew Loulousis, the appellant, by attorney Michael R. O'Malley, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$17,500
IMPR.:	$51,291
TOTAL:	$68,791

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 2,774 square feet, two-story masonry structure on a 3,125 square feet lot in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County constitutes the subject property. The 124-year-old, class 2-11 residence per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance included three bathrooms, a two-car garage, no air conditioning, and a full basement. The appellant elected to forego a hearing on the petition.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the petition, arguing that the subject assessment must be lowered to $10.32 per improvement square foot to be equitable. To show subject assessment nonuniformity, the appellant presented information on five class 2-11 properties in the subject's neighborhood. These suggested comparables each included no garage to a two-car garage, no air conditioning, and two or three bathrooms. The appellant's selections spanned 111 to 135 years in building age; 2,550 to 2,926 square feet in improvement area; and $9.91 to $10.67 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

The county board of review maintained in its "Notes on Appeal" that the subject improvement was fairly assessed at $51,291, or $18.49 per living square foot. In defense of the $68,791 total subject assessment, the board of review introduced into evidence four masonry buildings within a quarter mile of the subject as equity comparables. The county board of review's selections featured a full basement, two or four bathrooms, no air conditioning, and a one- or two-car garage. These improvements were 126 to 136 years old; 2,315 to 2,760 square feet in area; and $19.00 to $19.65 per living square foot in assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires that real estate taxes "be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law." Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation, however; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority's assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When a property tax appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment, appellants must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation for the year in question of demonstrably similar properties with compelling proximity to, and a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant fell short of satisfying this burden of proof.

Of the parties' submissions, board of review comparables #1 and #2 and appellant comparables #4 and #5 constitute the best evidence of assessment equity in this record. Each of these comparators featured slightly smaller improvements and fewer bathrooms than the subject. While the board of review comparators matched the subject's garage size, appellant comparables #4 and #5 had smaller garages, placing them at the bottom of the $10.61 to $19.03 per living square foot equitable improvement assessment range. Because the subject's $18.49 per improvement square foot assessment falls within this range, PTAB concludes the appellant failed to show by clear and convincing evidence that the subject assessment was inequitable or that a reduction thereof is merited.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
