FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: PENNY BONES LLC
DOCKET NO.: 24-28747.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-17-420-049-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are PENNY BONES LLC, the appellant by attorney Brian P. Liston, of the Law Offices of Liston & Tsantilis, P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$13,440
IMPR.:	$18,675
TOTAL:	$32,115

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 684 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 137 years old. Features of the home include an unfinished basement and 1 bathroom. The property has a 2,400 square foot site and is located in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-02 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information, including property characteristics printouts that were used by the Board to verify or correct some of the data in the grid analysis, on six comparables. The properties are located within the subject's assessment neighborhood and are 1.7 or 1.8 miles from the subject property. The comparables consist of class 2-02, 1-story dwellings of frame or masonry exterior construction ranging in size 800 to 885 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 136 to 147 years old. Each comparable has a basement with finished area and 1 bathroom. Three comparables have either a 1-car or a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $15,352 or $19,360 or $19.19 to $24.20 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject property of $32,115. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $18,675 or $27.30 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four comparables, three of which are located within the same assessment neighborhood as the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-02, 1-story or 1.5-story dwellings of frame or masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 693 to 882 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 137 to 152 years old. Each comparable has a basement, with one having finished area, and either 1 or 3 bathrooms. One comparable has central air conditioning, and two comparable have either a 1.5-car or a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $18,900 to $36,001 or from $27.27 to $43.27 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted ten comparable properties for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables and the board of review's comparables #3 and #4 due to differences from the subject in location and/or basement finish when compared to the subject. Moreover, five of the comparables feature central air conditioning and/or a garage amenity, both of which the subject lacks.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review's comparables #1 and #2 which are overall most similar to the subject in location, design, age, and other features. However, these comparables still require adjustments for their larger dwelling sizes when compared to the subject. These two comparables have improvement assessments of $24,082 or for $27.30 or $28.67 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $18,675 or $27.30 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the two best comparables in the record in the record on an overall basis and matches the comparable with the lower improvement assessment on a per-square-foot basis. However, the Board finds the subject's lower overall improvement assessment is logical given the subject's smaller dwelling size in relation to these two comparables. Based on this record and after considering adjustments to the two best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
