

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ryan McIntyre
DOCKET NO.: 24-29050.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-17-322-008-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Ryan McIntyre, the appellant, by attorney Michael R. O'Malley, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $11,200
IMPR: $41,800
TOTAL: $53,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 2,128 square feet, two-story masonry building perched on a 2,000 square feet lot in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County comprises the subject property. The 131-year-old, class 2-11 residence per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance featured three bathrooms, no air conditioning, no garage, and a full basement.

The appellant based the petition on assessment inequity, contending that the assessment should be lowered to $12.61 per improvement square foot. As evidence of nonuniformity, the appellant nominated five class 2-11 residences in the subject's neighborhood. These suggested comparables featured no garage or a one-car garage, two bathrooms, no air conditioning, and a full basement. These potential comparator improvements were between 130 and 136 years in building age; 1,932 and 2,328 square feet in size; and $10.00 and $13.17 per living square foot in assessment. The appellant elected to forego a hearing on the petition.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $41,800, or $19.64 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $53,000 total subject assessment, the county board of review proposed four masonry improvements within a quarter mile of the subject as equity comparables. The board of review’s preferred comparators all featured a full basement, no garage or a two-car garage, air conditioning in property #1 only, and two or 2.5 bathrooms. These selections had 130- to 152-year-old buildings with 1,644 to 2,156 square feet in living area and were assessed between $25.57 and $32.71 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When the ground for appeal is unequal treatment in the assessment, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment should consist of assessment documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties of compelling proximity to, and with a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant fell short of satisfying this burden of proof.

In this record, board of review comparable #2 and appellant comparables #3 and #4 most resembled the subject property and thereby comprise the best evidence of subject assessment equity. Board of review comparable #2 was marginally larger than the subject improvement, which mitigated its lower bathroom count. Similarly, appellant comparables #3 and #4 had only two bathrooms but added a one-car garage, which helped offset appellant comparable #3’s smaller living area. Based on this evidence, the subject would be equitably assessed between $12.61 and $26.24 per improvement square foot in assessment, which encompasses the subject improvement assessment rate. PTAB accordingly concludes the appellant did not demonstrate that the $19.64 per living square foot subject improvement assessment was inequitable by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction commensurate with the appellant’s request is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
