

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Igor Pastukh
DOCKET NO.: 24-29056.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-07-102-027-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Igor Pastukh, the appellant, by attorney Michael R. O'Malley, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $21,814
IMPR: $41,977
TOTAL: $63,791

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2,566 square feet, two-story masonry building on a 2,928 square feet parcel in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County. The 66-year-old, class 2-11 residence per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance featured three bathrooms, no air conditioning, a two-car garage, and a slab foundation.¹

The appellant pleads assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal, arguing that the subject improvement assessment should be reduced to $10.71 per living square foot. To show subject assessment nonuniformity, the appellant presented information on five class 2-11 properties in the subject's neighborhood. These suggested comparables each included no garage to a two-car garage, no air conditioning, a full basement, and two bathrooms. The appellant's selections spanned 134 to 158 years in building age; 2,320 to 2,600 square feet in improvement area; and $10.35 to $11.85 per living square foot in improvement assessment. The appellant elected to forego a hearing on the petition.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $41,977, or $16.36 per living square foot, was equitable in its "Notes on Appeal." In defense of the $63,791 total subject assessment, the county board of review introduced into evidence four masonry improvements in the subject's subarea as assessment comparables. The county board of review's preferred comparators contained three to four bathrooms, air conditioning in properties #1 and #4, no garage or a two-car garage, and a slab foundation to full basement. These selections were 134 to 137 in building age; 2,440 to 3,217 square feet in living area; and $17.11 to $22.28 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes "be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law." Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority's assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment is the basis of a property tax appeal, appellants must prove assessment inequity by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should comprise documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties of compelling proximity to, and with a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the assessment subject. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not overcome this burden of proof.

In this record, board of review comparables #3 and #4 and appellant comparable #2 most closely approximated the subject improvement's characteristics and therefore serve as the best evidence of assessment equity. While all of these comparable improvements were at least twice as old as the subject improvement, board of review comparable #4 mitigated its older building with air conditioning and an extra bathroom, which also helped offset the lesser living and garage space. Conversely, board of review comparable #3 and appellant comparable #2 likewise had older buildings which each mitigated with more living area, and in the case of board of review comparable #3, an extra bathroom. Finally, because appellant comparable #2 included less bathroom functionality than the subject, it anchors the bottom of the $10.53 to $22.28 per living square foot equitable assessment range for the subject improvement. Because the subject's $16.36 per improvement square foot assessment is within this range, PTAB finds the appellant did not prove assessment inequity by clear and convincing evidence or that a subject assessment reduction is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
