

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Andrew Maxwell
DOCKET NO.: 24-29100.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-36-429-008-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Andrew Maxwell, the appellant, by attorney Michael R. O'Malley, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $17,500
IMPR.: $37,746
TOTAL: $55,246

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2,152 square feet, two-story masonry building on a 3,125 square feet lot in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County. The 102-year-old, class 2-11 residence under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance featured two bathrooms, no air conditioning, a two-car garage, and a full basement.

The appellant based the petition on assessment inequity, contending that the assessment should be lowered to $10.61 per improvement square foot. As evidence of nonuniformity, the appellant nominated five class 2-11 residences in the subject's neighborhood. These suggested comparables featured no garage to a two-car garage, two or three bathrooms, no air conditioning, and a full basement. These potential comparator improvements were between 103 and 121 years old; 2,550 and 3,228 square feet in size; and $10.04 and $10.90 per living square foot in assessment. The appellant elected to forego a hearing on the appeal.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $37,746, or $17.54 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $55,246 total subject assessment, the county board of review proposed four masonry improvements in the subject’s subarea as equity comparables. The board of review’s preferred comparators all featured a full basement, no garage or a two-car garage, air conditioning in property #2, and two or three bathrooms. These improvements were 116 to 132 years old; 1,750 to 2,543 square feet in living area; and $20.43 to $23.71 per living square foot in assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When the ground for appeal is unequal treatment in the assessment, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment should consist of documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties of compelling proximity to, and with a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant fell short of satisfying this burden of proof.

In this record, the appellant submitted into evidence no property within 397 square feet of the subject improvement’s size. Accordingly, board of review comparables #1, #3, and #4 constitute the best evidence of subject assessment equity. Board of review comparables #1 and #3 both lacked some of the subject’s living area and did not otherwise mitigate their smaller living spaces with better amenities. By contrast, board of review comparable #4 was superior to the subject in that it had more living and garage space and bathrooms than the subject. Based on this evidence, the subject would be equitably assessed from $20.43 to $23.71 per improvement square foot. Because the subject improvement’s $17.54 per living square foot assessment is below those of the best comparators, PTAB concludes the appellant did not demonstrate inequitable subject assessment by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction in the subject assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
