

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Kyle Ludwig
DOCKET NO.: 24-29133.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-06-311-023-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Kyle Ludwig, the appellant, by attorney Michael R. O'Malley, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $26,100
IMPR.: $73,900
TOTAL: $100,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 3,588 square feet, two-story masonry building perched on a 3,000 square feet parcel in Chicago of West Chicago Township, Cook County comprises the subject property. The 120-year-old, class 2-11 residence per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance featured three bathrooms, no air conditioning, a two-car garage, and a full basement.

The appellant pleads assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal, arguing that the subject improvement assessment must be reduced to $13.77 per living square foot. As evidence of subject assessment nonuniformity, the appellant presented five class 2-11 properties in the subject's neighborhood. These suggested comparables included three bathrooms, no air conditioning, and no garage to a two-car garage. The appellant's improvements also spanned 113 to 134 years in building age; 3,717 to 3,942 square feet in area; and $12.77 to $14.13 per living square foot in assessment. The appellant elected to forego a hearing on the appeal.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $73,900, or $20.60 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $100,000 total subject assessment, the county board of review proposed four two-story masonry improvements within a quarter mile of the subject as assessment comparables. The county board of review’s preferred comparators included three to five bathrooms, a full basement, air conditioning in property #3 only, and no garage to a 2.5-car garage. These properties had 113- to 132-year-old buildings; 2,702 to 3,002 in living square footage; and $21.05 to $23.52 per square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment is the basis of a property tax appeal, appellants must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should comprise assessment documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties with compelling proximity to, and a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not surmount this burden of proof.

In this record, no party submitted into evidence a property within 128 square feet of the subject improvement’s size. Moreover, while some of the appellant’s purported comparables approached the subject improvement in terms of living area, the properties cannot serve as comparators because the appellant neglected to provide specific location information relative to the subject such that PTAB cannot evaluate whether the properties are sufficiently similar to the subject to serve as an assessment benchmark. In short, because no evidence on record demonstrates the subject’s $20.60 per improvement square foot assessment is inequitable, PTAB finds the appellant did not provide sufficiently clear and convincing evidence that a subject assessment reduction is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
