

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Iwona Jasica
DOCKET NO.: 24-32565.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 22-24-304-001-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Iwona Jasica, the appellant(s), by attorney Scott Shudnow, of Shudnow & Shudnow, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $17,597
IMPR.: $31,403
TOTAL: $49,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry construction, approximately thirty years-old, with 2,869 square feet of living area on a 54,145 square foot lot in Lemont, Lemont Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as 2-78 under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. Features of the home include three full bathrooms, one half bathroom, a full basement and an attached two-car garage.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of appeal. In support of its market value argument, the appellant completed Section IV – Recent Sale Data in its Residential Appeal Form indicating the subject property was purchased on October 4, 2022, for $490,000 or $170.79 per square foot of living area. In his brief entitled “Brief in Support of 2023 Assessed Valuation Complaint,” appellant’s attorney states that the buyer and seller were not related parties. The property was sold by a realtor and was listed on the multiple listing service for a period of 28 days. The appellant submitted a settlement statement showing commissions paid to both a buyer's agent and a seller's agent. Both agents work for @properties.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" stating the total valuation assessment for the subject property as $54,234 with an improvement assessment of $36,637. The valuation assessment reflects a market value of $542,340 when applying the 10% Cook County Real Estate Classification Ordinance assessment for class two properties, or $189.03 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three comparable properties with sales taking place from October 19, 2023, to September 16, 2024, for prices ranging from $800,000 to $1,050,000 or $216.25 to $293.46 per square foot of living area. The comparable properties are two-story buildings of masonry construction, ranging in age from twenty-four to thirty-five years-old and ranging in size from 2,854 to 3,696 square feet of living area. All are located in Lemont.

Conclusion of Law

The Board takes judicial notice that the subject property was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior year under Docket Number 23-21803. In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $49,000 on the evidence submitted by the parties. The tax years 2023 and 2024 are within the same general assessment period for Lemont Township and the appellant disclosed that the subject property is an owner-occupied residence.

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the assessment as established by the Board for the 2023 tax year should be carried forward to the tax year at issue subject only to equalization as provided by section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) states in part:

"If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review." 35 ILCS 200/16-185.

Additionally, section 10-15 of the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act states: "Standard of proof. Unless otherwise provided by law or stated in the agency's rules, the standard of proof in any contested case hearing conducted under this Act by an agency shall be the preponderance of the evidence." 5 ILCS 100/10-15. The Board takes official notice that for docket number 23-22073.001-R-1 it rendered a decision lowering the subject's assessment for tax year 2023 (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.90(i)), and that tax year 2023 and the instant tax year of 2024 are in the same general assessment period for Lemont Township. The Board further finds that the subject is owner-occupied based on the appellant's statement in Section II of the 2024 appeal form, which states that the subject is owner-occupied. The record contains no evidence indicating that the subject sold in an arm's-length transaction subsequent to the Board's decision for the 2023 tax year, or that the Board's decision for the 2023 tax year was reversed or modified upon review.

For these reasons the Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the assessment as established in the Board's 2023 tax year decision, plus the application of an equalization factor, if any.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
