The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are 1316 W Wrightwood Condominium Associatio, the appellant(s), by attorney Michael R. O'Malley, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

DOCKET NO	PARCEL NUMBER	LAND	IMPRVMT	TOTAL
24-33845.001-R-2	14-29-308-058-1001	23,146	127,254	$150,400
24-33845.002-R-2	14-29-308-058-1002	11,573	63,627	$75,200
24-33845.003-R-2	14-29-308-058-1003	23,146	127,254	$150,400

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject properties consist of three seven-year-old condominium units located in one building with a total of 8,320 square feet of living area of masonry construction. Features of the home include a slab foundation, central air conditioning, and three fireplaces. The condominium building has a 3,111 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Lakeview Township, Cook County. The subjects are classified as class 2-99 properties under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on nine comparable sales. The comparables are located within 0.5 miles of the subject. The comparables are seven- to 27-year-old class 2-99 condominium units with masonry construction. The comparables were sold between June 2022 and November 2023 for sale prices between $574,500 and $843,000. The comparables have sale prices per square foot between $291.56 and $408.16. The appellant is requesting a total assessment of $169,500.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted a condominium analysis regarding recent sales in the three appealed units. Per the analysis, two of the three condominium units sold in 2022 and 2023 totaling $2,256,000. The board of review stated that based on these units, 60.00 percent of all units being sold, the entire building would be worth $3,760,000, which would equal the determined assessed value. The board of review then determined the value of each subject unit based on its ownership percentage of the building. The board of review is requesting that the current assessment be confirmed based on this analysis.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the condominium analysis submitted by the board of review. This analysis included sales of two out of the three appealed units from the appeal year in question, 2024. The recent sales of two out of three units are the best evidence of value and a good way to determine the value of the final unit. On the other hand, the appellant's comparables are located in different buildings and the appellant failed to specify which comparable applied to which specific unit. Based on this evidence the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
