FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Tom Evans
DOCKET NO.: 24-34032.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-18-309-011-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Tom Evans, the appellant, by attorney Abby L. Strauss, of Schiller Law P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$34,008
IMPR.:	$94,993
TOTAL:	$129,001

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 2,453 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 19 years old. Features include a full basement with finished area,[1] central air conditioning, two fireplaces and a 2-car garage. The property has a 3,050 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Lake View Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on five comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood. The comparables are improved with 2-story, class 2-78 dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 2,480 to 2,611 square feet of living area. The homes are from 16 to 25 years old. The comparables each have a full basement; however, no data was provided by the appellant concerning finished basement area. Four comparables each have central air conditioning. Four comparables each have one or two fireplaces. Each comparable has a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $73,976 to $94,320 or from $29.50 to $36.53 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced.

[1] The board of review disclosed the subject has a basement recreation room, which was not refuted by the appellant.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $129,001. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $94,993 or $38.73 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on three comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood. The comparables are improved with 2-story, class 2-78 dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 2,278 to 2,584 square feet of living area. The homes are either 20 or 22 years old. Each comparable has a full basement with finished area and a 2-car garage. Two comparables each have central air conditioning. Two comparables each have one or two fireplaces. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $93,435 to $104,156 or from $40.25 to $41.02 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted eight equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board has given less weight to the appellant's comparables which were not reported to have basement finish, like the subject. The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review's comparables which are similar to the subject in location, design, age, dwelling size, basement finish, and most features. However, board of review comparable #3 lacks central air conditioning, which the subject features, suggesting an upward adjustment for this difference would be necessary to make it more equivalent to the subject. The best comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $93,435 to $104,156 or from $40.25 to $41.02 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $94,993 or $38.73 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in the record on an overall basis and below the range on a per square foot basis. After considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
