

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Patricia Smith
DOCKET NO.: 24-34459.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 01-01-108-007-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Patricia Smith, the appellant, by attorney Dora Cornelio, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $8,849
IMPR.: $47,363
TOTAL: $56,212

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 2,351 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 115 years old. Features of the home include a basement with finished area, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a 1-car garage. The property has an approximately 8,849 square foot site and is located in Barrington, Barrington Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables located in the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with 2-story class 2-06 dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 2,209 to 2,586 square feet of living area. The homes range in age from 72 to 126 years old. Each comparable has a basement, with two having finished area and a 1-car or a 2-car garage. One comparable has central air conditioning and four comparables have a fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $27,350 to $33,797 or from $11.25 to $14.62 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $30,468 or $12.96 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $56,212. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $47,363 or $20.15 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject property and located within ¼ of a mile or on the same block of the subject property. The comparables are improved with 2-story class 2-06 dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 2,286 to 3,266 square feet of living area. The homes range in age from 112 to 124 years old. Each comparable has a basement, with one having finished area and from a 2-car to a 3-car garage. Three comparables have central air conditioning and 1 comparable has a fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $62,288 to $72,288 or from $20.80 to $28.15 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted nine equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables #1 and #5 and the board of review's comparables #1, #3 and #4 which are less similar to the subject in age and/or dwelling size.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables #2, #3 and #4 and the board of review's comparable #2 which are more similar to the subject in age, design, dwelling size and most features. However, these properties present varying degrees of similarity to the subject in basement finished area and central air conditioning suggesting adjustments are needed to make these comparables more equivalent to the subject. These comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $27,525 to $64,354 or from $11.67 to $28.15 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $47,363 or $20.15 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. After considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which, appears to exist on the basis of the evidence in this record.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
