

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Terance P. and Jane McElroy
DOCKET NO.: 24-34637.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 02-07-102-002-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Terance P. and Jane McElroy, the appellants, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld & Associates, LLC in Northbrook; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $14,545
IMPR.: $42,455
TOTAL: $57,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellants timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 3,380 square feet of living area. The home was built in 1983 and is approximately 41 years old. Features include a full basement, central air conditioning, one fireplace, and a 3-car garage. The property has a 48,482 square foot site and is located in Inverness, Palatine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellants contend assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellants submitted information on four equity comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood. The comparables are improved with 2-story, class 2-78 dwellings of frame or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 3,024 to 3,635 square feet of living area. The homes range in age from 36 to 48 years old. Each comparable has a full basement, central air conditioning, one fireplace, and from a 2-car to a 3.5-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $31,995 to $38,749 or from $10.45 to $11.07 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellants requested that the improvement assessment be reduced.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $57,000. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $42,455 or $12.56 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood. The comparables are improved with 2-story, class 2-78 dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 2,806 to 3,639 square feet of living area. The homes are each 41 years old. Each comparable has a full basement, central air conditioning, one or two fireplaces, and a 3-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $41,326 to $49,494 or from $13.60 to $14.73 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested that the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellants contend assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellants did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted seven suggested equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to board of review comparable #3 which is less similar to the subject in dwelling size than the other comparables in this record.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the parties' six remaining comparables to be most similar to the subject in design/class, age, dwelling size, and other features. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $31,995 to $49,494 or from $10.45 to $14.59 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $42,455 or $12.56 per square foot of living area within the range established by the best comparables in this record. After considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellants did not demonstrate that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which exists on the basis of the evidence in this record.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
