FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Mark Steinberg
DOCKET NO.: 24-34654.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-18-410-002-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Mark Steinberg, the appellant(s), by attorney Michael R. O'Malley, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$60,998
IMPR.:	$56,076
TOTAL:	$117,074

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story frame structure, approximately 135 years of age, with 1,998 square feet of living area, on a 6,930 square foot site in Lakeview Township, Chicago, Cook County. The subject is classified as 2-05 under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. Features of the building include two full bathrooms, a half bathroom, a basement[1] and a two-car garage.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables with varying degrees of similarity to the subject property. The properties offered by the appellant are two-story, class

[1] The appellant, in Section III of his petition, and on his assessment grid, states that the property has a full basement. The board of review, in its assessment equity grid, indicates that the property has a partial basement. We make no finding on the characterization of the basement as it is not determinative to the outcome of this case.

2-05 buildings of frame, masonry or stucco construction, ranging in age from 116 to 126 years and ranging in size from 1,992 to 2,168 square feet of living area. The comparables have one or two full bathrooms. All have full basements and garages. The record is silent on the proximity of the comparables to the subject property. The assessed values of the comparables range from $17.30 to $18.31 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant is requesting an assessment amount of $97,581.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" stating the total assessment for the subject property as $117,074 including an improvement assessment of $56,076 or $28.07 per improved square foot. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted four equity comparable properties. The properties offered by the board of review are two-story frame structures, ranging in age from 93 to 132 years, and ranging in size from 1,540 to 2,197 square feet of living area. The comparables have from one full bathroom to two full and one half bathrooms. Three have full basements. One has a partial basement. Three have garages. The board of review reports that three of its comparables are located on the same block as the subject property and one is within a quarter-mile. The comparables have assessed values ranging from $25.24 to $32.25 per square foot of living area.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer asserts assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires that real estate taxes, "be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law." Ill. Const. art. IX, §4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation, however, and it is sufficient if the taxing authority achieves a reasonable degree of uniformity. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by the appellant by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a conviction of a crime. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity, and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables and the board of review's comparables #1, #2 and #3. Those comparables are similar to the subject property in age, size, exterior construction, number of bathrooms and, in the case of the board of review's comparables, proximity to the subject. In contrast, the appellant's comparable #4 is 458 square feet smaller than the subject property in living area. That comparable is accorded less evidentiary weight based on this factor. The best evidence comparables have improved assessed values ranging from $17.30 to $32.25 per square foot. The subject property's assessment of $28.07 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in the record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
