Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of six residential condominium units. The appellant stated all of the units contain three bedrooms. The dwelling is 106 years old and is located in Lake View Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on five comparable sales of three-bedroom condominium units.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $459,000. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $4,590,000, including land, when applying the 2024 level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10%.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted a condominium sales analysis based on recent sales in the subject. The Board questioned the circumstances surrounding some of the appellant's sales.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the appellant's comparable properties are too varied from the subject property to be helpful in providing a rage within which the subject's assessment should fall. For example, the appellant's evidence indicates a wide range of monthly assessments: ranging from $295 to $550 per month. In addition, the appellant's comparables vary in garage and exterior parking availability, elevators, and mix of rental and owner-occupied units. All of these factors have an impact on the sale prices of the comparables. As such, the Board finds the comparables are too dissimilar to the subject for the Board to determine a range within which the subject's market value should fall. Therefore, based on the evidence in the record, the Board finds the appellant has not met the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject is over assessed. A reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
