

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Louise Mavalankar
DOCKET NO.: 24-36031.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-19-206-019-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Louise Mavalankar, the appellant(s); and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $29,495
IMPR.: $17,960
TOTAL: $47,455

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal. The matter was previously set for a hearing, the appellant waived and elected to have the matter written on evidence.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one and a half-story dwelling of frame construction with 1,071 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately one hundred and thirty-one years old. Features of the single-family home include a full basement, one bathroom and a one-car garage. The property is located in Chicago, Lakeview Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The appellant assumes the burden of proof in such cases to a standard of clear and convincing evidence.

In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables. Each of the appellant equity comparables are single family homes built to a height of one and a half story. They are all within nine years of age as compared to the subject property. They range in size from 1,056 to 1,417 square feet of living area; and in improvement assessment from $15,503 to $31,439 or $14.68 to $22.19 per square foot of living area. One of the appellant comparables shares the same block with the subject property, the remaining two are within a few blocks. The appellant is requesting a reduction in total assessment to $47,455.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $51,000. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $21,505 or $20.08 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review has generally objected and stands by its assessment valuation.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's comparables one through three. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
