

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Donald Sharko
DOCKET NO.: 24-38403.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 27-06-206-006-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Donald Sharko, the appellant(s), by attorney Dora Cornelio, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $10,703
IMPR.: $21,007
TOTAL: $31,710

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story dwelling of masonry construction with 2,371 square feet of living area. The dwelling on the property is nine years old. Features of the home include a full basement, air conditioning, one fireplace and a three-car garage. The property has a 17,124 square foot site in Orland Park, Orland Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a 2-04 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables with varying degrees of similarity to the subject property. The five properties offered by the appellant as comparables each are constructed of frame and masonry or masonry and have full basements. Four of the suggested properties have two car garages and one has no garage. The comparables range in age from thirty-four to seventy-two years old. The record is silent on the proximity of the appellants five comparables to the subject property. Based on this evidence the appellant is requesting an assessment amount of $31,258.

The Board of Review submitted its “Board of Review Notes on Appeal” stating the total assessment for the subject property as $45,724. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $35,021 or $14.77 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the Board of Review submitted information on four equity comparables. The suggested comparable properties range in size from 2,544 to 4,594 square feet of living area and range in age from twenty-one to thirty-eight years old. Two of the comparable properties are constructed of frame and masonry, two are masonry and one is a frame construction. Two of the comparables have partial basements, one has a full basement and one is on a slab foundation. Two of the properties have air conditioning. Three of the comparables have one fireplace and one has no fireplace. Two of the comparables have three car garages, one has a three and a half car garage and one has a four-car garage. Two of the comparables are thirty- and two are thirty-three years-old. The Board of Review reports that two of the comparables are located within a quarter-mile of the subject property.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer asserts assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires that real estate taxes, “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const. art. IX, §4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation, however, and it is sufficient if the taxing authority achieves a reasonable degree of uniformity. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by the appellant by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a conviction of a crime. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity, and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant’s comparables #2, #3 and #5. These comparable properties are similar to the subject property in terms of living area, basement and age. In contrast, the Board of Review’s comparables #1, #2 and #3 have partial basements or are on a slab foundation. Comparable #4 is of a different type of construction and is considerably larger than the subject property. Neither comparable #1 nor comparable #2 has air conditioning. Appellant’s comparables #1 and #4 are both at least 48 years older than the subject property. The Board finds that these comparables are afforded less weight based on these distinguishing characteristics.

The best evidence comparables ranged in improvement assessment of $7.74 to $8.86 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $14.77 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in this record. After considering adjustments to these comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment is not supported. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
