FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Miguel Campos
DOCKET NO.: 24-38849.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 19-15-222-019-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Miguel Campos, the appellant(s), by attorney Sami Kashkeesh, of Kashkeesh Law in Orland Park; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$3,000
IMPR.:	$20,766
TOTAL:	$23,766

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 1,302 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 72 years old. Features of the home include a basement, central air conditioning, and a 1.5-car garage. The property has a 3,750 square foot site located in Chicago, Lake Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood and from 0.23 of a mile to 1.89 miles of the subject property. The comparables consist of class 2-03 dwellings of masonry exterior construction ranging in size 1,074 to 1,603 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 68 to 93 years old. Each comparable has a basement and a 1.5-car garage. Comparable #4 has 2 fireplaces. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $13,976 to $21,976 or from $13.01 to $13.89 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $17,720 or $13.61 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing a total assessment for the subject property of $23,766. The appellant disclosed the subject property has an improvement assessment of $20,766 or $15.95 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four comparables within the same assessment neighborhood as the subject property. The grid analysis did not provide the comparables' proximity to the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-03, 1-story dwellings of frame or masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,037 to 1,128 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 67 to 72 years old. Comparables #1 and #2 each have a slab foundation, and comparables #3 and #4 each have a basement. Comparable #3 has central air conditioning, and each comparable has either a 1-car, a 1.5-car or a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $17,400 to $18,928 or $16.78 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted eight comparable properties for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables #1 and #3 along with the board of review's comparables #1, #2 and #3 which are less similar to the subject in age or dwelling size than the other comparables in the record. Moreover, the board of review's comparables also lack a basement foundation, unlike the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment to be the parties' remaining comparables which overall are most similar to the subject in design, age, dwelling size, and foundation type. However, these comparables are from 3% to 13% smaller in dwelling size than the subject and lack central air conditioning, unlike the subject, suggesting upward adjustments are needed in order to make them more equivalent to the subject. Conversely, two comparables require downward adjustments for 2 fireplaces or larger garage capacity. These three comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $17,250 to $18,928 or from $13.69 to $16.78 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $20,766 or $15.95 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in the record on an overall basis and within the range on a per square foot basis. The subject's higher overall improvement assessment is logical after considering the adjustments to the comparables for differences in features to the subject property. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
