

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Harry Laws
DOCKET NO.: 24-39259.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 18-06-423-015-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Harry Laws, the appellant, by attorney Brian S. Maher, of Weis, DuBrock, Doody & Maher in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $10,900
IMPR.: $49,047
TOTAL: $59,947

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2,036 square feet, two-story frame building situated on a 10,900 square feet lot in Western Springs, Lyons Township, Cook County. The 98-year-old, class 2-05 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance included two full and two half bathrooms, a partial basement, air conditioning, and a two-car garage.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal, arguing that the assessment should be reduced to $21.30 per improvement square foot. To show that the subject assessment is not uniform, the appellant proposed four class 2-05 properties in the subject's neighborhood as equity comparables. These suggested comparators had one to 2.5 bathrooms, a one- to two-car garage, air conditioning in properties #1 and #4, and a full to crawl-space basement. The appellant's selections further ranged between 76 and 96 years in building age; 1,770 and 2,034 in living square footage; and $17.46 and $23.74 per improvement square foot in assessment.

The board of review responded that the subject improvement was fairly assessed at $49,047, or $24.09 per living square foot in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $59,947 total subject assessment, the county board of review offered information about four two-story properties in the subject’s town as assessment benchmarks. The board of review’s preferred comparables all featured one to two bathrooms, a one- or two-car garage, air conditioning in properties #1 and #3, and a full or partial basement. These improvements were 98 to 112 years old; 1,798 to 2,107 square feet in area; and $24.53 to $27.01 per living square foot in assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation, however; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When a property tax appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment, appellants must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties of compelling proximity to, and with a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not satisfy this burden of proof.

In this record, only four of the eight proposed comparators featured air conditioning like the subject—but the parties did not provide specific proximity to the subject property for these comparables. Meanwhile, the properties in evidence without air conditioning did not otherwise sufficiently compensate for the missing amenity to serve as a benchmark for assessment equity. Because no evidence in the record indicates the subject was inequitably assessed, PTAB finds the appellant did not produce the requisite evidence to justify a reduction in the subject assessment.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
