

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: John Jennings
DOCKET NO.: 24-39716.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 04-36-400-062-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are John Jennings, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld & Associates, LLC in Northbrook; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $38,220
IMPR.: $89,175
TOTAL: $127,395

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 4,169 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 84 years old. Features of the home include a partial basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a 2-car garage. The property has a 38,220 square foot site and is located in Glenview, Northfield Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood and from 1.6 to 3.6 miles of the subject property. The comparables consist of class 2-06, two or more story dwellings of masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 3,556 to 4,612 square feet of living area. The dwelling are 64 to 101 years old. One comparable has a slab foundation, and three comparables each have a partial or full basement. Each comparable has central air conditioning, 1 or 2 fireplaces, and a 2-car or a 2½-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $61,527 to $75,720 or from $15.70 to $20.00 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the improvement assessment be reduced to $72,082 or $17.29 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $127,395. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $89,175 or $21.39 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables, three of which are located within the same assessment neighborhood code and the same block or subarea as the subject property. The comparables consist of class 2-06, two-story dwellings of frame or masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 3,700 to 5,276 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 76 to 90 years old. Each comparable has a partial or full basement with three having finished area. Three comparables each have central air conditioning, each comparable has from 1 to 3 fireplaces and either a 2-car or a 3-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $82,177 to $115,898 or from $21.97 to $24.51 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted eight equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables which are located from 1.6 to 3.6 miles away from the subject property. Moreover, three of the appellant's comparables also considerably differ from the subject in dwelling size, age or foundation type. In addition, the Board gives less weight to the board of review's comparables #2 and #3 due to differences in their assessment neighborhood or dwelling size when compared to the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review's comparables #1 and #4 which are overall more similar to the subject in location, dwelling size, age, foundation type and some features. These two comparables have improvement assessments of $82,177 and $103,440 or $22.21 and $22.33 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $89,175 or $21.39 per square foot of living area is bracketed by these two best comparables on an overall basis and is below these two comparables on a per-square-foot basis. After considering adjustments to the two best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which exists on the basis of the evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
