

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Joseph P. & Beatriz Fox
DOCKET NO.: 24-40533.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 27-31-106-016-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Joseph P. & Beatriz Fox, the appellants, by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $7,767
IMPR.: $28,109
TOTAL: $35,876

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellants timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1-story dwelling of frame and masonry exterior construction containing 2,265 square feet of living area. The home is 33 years old. Features include a partial unfinished basement, 2 ½ bathrooms and a 2-car garage. The property has an 11,096 square foot site and is located in Orland Park, Orland Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-04 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellants contend assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellants submitted information on seven comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood and within approximately 0.22 of a mile from the subject property. The comparables consist of class 2-04, 1-story dwellings of frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 2,216 to 2,698 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 29 to 33 years old. Each comparable has a partial unfinished basement, either 1½, 2½ or 3 bathrooms and either a 2-car, 2½-car or a 3-car garage. Six comparables each have central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $25,927 to $29,678 or from $11.00 to $11.70 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellants requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject property of $35,876. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $28,109 or $12.41 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four comparables located within the same assessment neighborhood and block as the subject property. The comparables consist of class 2-04, 1-story dwellings of frame and masonry exterior construction containing 2,265 or 2,516 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 32 or 33 years old. Each comparable has a partial unfinished basement, 2½ bathrooms and either a 2-car or a 3-car garage. Three comparables each have central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $29,296 to $32,488 or ranging from $12.91 to $13.58 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellants contend assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellants did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted eleven suggested comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellants' comparables #1, #2, #4, #5, #6 and #7 as well as the board of review comparable #1 which have central air conditioning, and is not a feature of the subject. Furthermore, the appellants' comparables #5, #6 and #7 are less similar to the subject in bathroom count and/or dwelling size than the other comparables in the record.

The Board gives more weight to the parties' remaining comparables which lack central air conditioning, like the subject, and are most similar to the subject in overall property characteristics. These four comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $26,465 to $32,488 or ranging from $11.68 to $13.58 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $28,109 or $12.41 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in the record. Based on this record and after considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellants did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
