

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ahmad Matarieh
DOCKET NO.: 24-41094.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 27-24-312-022-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ahmad Matarieh, the appellant, by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,320
IMPR.: $18,749
TOTAL: $23,069

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 1,120 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 52 years old. Features of the home include a partial basement with finished area, 1 bathroom and central air conditioning. The property has a 7,200 square foot site located in Tinley Park, Orland Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on six comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood and within 0.24 of a mile from the subject property. Three comparables are located along the same street as the subject property. The comparables consist of class 2-03, 1-story dwellings of frame or frame and masonry exterior construction containing 1,218 or 1,290 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 51 or 53 years old. Three comparables have a crawl space or a slab foundation, and three comparables have a full basement with one having a finished area. Each comparable has 1 or 1½ bathrooms, three comparables each have central air conditioning, and five comparables have either a 1-car or a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $17,067 to $19,500 or from $13.23 to $15.12 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject property of $23,069. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $18,749 or $16.74 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four comparables located within the same assessment neighborhood and block as the subject. One comparable is located along the same street as the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-03, 1-story dwellings of frame exterior construction containing 1,109 or 1,120 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 53 or 54 years old. The comparables have partial or full basements with finished area and 1 or 1½ bathrooms. Three comparables each have central air conditioning, and three comparables have a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $22,795 to $24,220 or from $20.35 to $21.63 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted ten comparable properties for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables which are less similar to the subject in dwelling size and/or lack a basement foundation or basement finish, which are features of the subject, than the other comparables in the record.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review's comparables which are identical or nearly identical to the subject in age, design, dwelling size, location and have a basement foundation with finished area. However, except for the board of review comparable #1, the comparables require downward adjustments for one half bathroom and a 2-car garage to make them more equivalent to the subject. These four comparables have improvement assessments that range from $22,795 to $24,220 or from $20.35 to $21.63 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $18,749 or $16.74 per square foot of living area falls below the improvement assessments of the best comparables in the record. After considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
