

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Sarah Arvanitakis
DOCKET NO.: 24-43673.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-22-110-001-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Sarah Arvanitakis, the appellant, by attorney Dora Cornelio, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $15,531
IMPR.: $43,733
TOTAL: $59,264

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 1,826 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 122 years old. Features of the home include a basement, 2 bathrooms, central air conditioning, and a 2-car garage. The property has a 3,932 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County and is classified as a class 2-05 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the subject's improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on five comparable properties located within the same assessment neighborhood as the subject. The comparables are improved with class 2-05, 2-story dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 1,644 to 1,925 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 117 to 136 years old. Each comparable has a basement, 1 or 2 bathrooms and either a 2-car or a 2.5-car garage. Two comparables each have central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $26,505 to $29,502 or from $14.03 to $16.12 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject property of $59,264. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $43,733 or $23.95 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four comparable properties located within the subject's assessment neighborhood and within the subject's block or approximately ¼ of a mile from the subject. The comparables are improved with class 2-05, 2-story dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 1,656 or 1,791 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 117 to 125 years old. Each comparable has a basement and from 1 to 3 bathrooms. Two comparables each have central air conditioning, and three comparables each have a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $42,675 to $48,841 or from $25.77 to $27.27 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties provided a total of nine equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables #1, #3 and #4 which are less similar to the subject in age than the other comparables in the record. The Board also gives less weight to the board of review's comparable #3 which lacks a garage, unlike the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the parties' remaining comparables which are located within the subject's assessment neighborhood and are overall most similar to the subject in design, age, and dwelling size. However, these comparables differ from the subject in bathroom count and/or lack central air conditioning, a feature of the subject, suggesting adjustments would be appropriate to make them more equivalent to the subject. These five comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $26,505 to $48,841 or from $15.66 to $27.27 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $43,733 or $23.95 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. After considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
