FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Michael J. McKeever
DOCKET NO.: 24-45073.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-29-114-023-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Michael J. McKeever, the appellant, by attorney Jeffrey A. Holland, of Holland Hicks Law, LLC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$57,195
IMPR.:	$69,805
TOTAL:	$127,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 2,343 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 26 years old. Features include a full basement with finished area, central air conditioning, two fireplaces and a 2-car garage with 400 square feet of building area. The property has a 3,075 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Lake View Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on six comparables located, one of which is located within the subject's assessment neighborhood. The comparables area located from 0.1 of a mile to 1.4 miles from the subject property. The comparables are improved with 2-story, class 2-78 dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 2,184 to 2,430 square feet of living area. The homes are from 25 to 35 years old. Each comparable has a full basement with finished area, central air conditioning, one or two fireplaces, and a 1-car or a 2-car garage with 240 or 400 square feet of building area. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $54,500 to $63,340 or from $23.11 to $27.01 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $127,000. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $69,805 or $29.79 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood and ¼ of a mile from the subject property. The comparables are improved with 2-story, class 2-78 dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 2,312 to 2,624 square feet of living area. The homes are from 23 to 26 years old. Each comparable has a full basement with finished area, central air central air conditioning, one or two fireplaces, and a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $68,875 to $79,340 or from $29.79 to $31.70 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the subject's assessment be confirmed.

In written rebuttal, the appellant's counsel provided a six page critique of the differences of the board of review comparables to the subject."

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted ten suggested equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board finds the parties' comparables to be relatively similar to the subject in design/class, age, dwelling size, and features. However, the Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables #1, #2, #3, #4, and #6 which are located in different assessment neighborhoods than the subject and from 0.9 of mile to 1.4 miles from the subject property, less proximate than the other comparables in this record. The five remaining comparables, which are located most proximate to the subject, have improvement assessments ranging from $58,875 to $79,340 or from $26.93 to $31.70 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $69,805 or $29.79 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. After considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
