

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Lolita Wilburn
DOCKET NO.: 24-47961.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 31-10-200-089-1059

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Lolita Wilburn, the appellant(s); and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $524
IMPR.: $8,931
TOTAL: $9,455

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of an approximately 31-year-old condominium dwelling with 1,200 square feet of living area of frame construction. Features of the home include central air conditioning and one bathroom. The property has a is located in Country Club Hills, Rich Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four comparable sales. The comparables are located less than one mile away. The comparables are condominium residences with frame construction. The comparables were sold between March 2024 and September 2024 for sale prices between $82,000 and $93,000. The comparables have sale prices per square foot between $77.50 and $121.43. The subject has a total assessment of $9,450, which translates to a total value of $94,550, or $78.79 per square foot, land included. The appellant is requesting a total assessment of $8,561.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted a condominium analysis regarding recent sales in the 276-unit complex the subject property is located in. Per the analysis, numerous condominiums had recent sales of units in this complex that totaled $4,74,734. The board of review stated that those sold units have a 16.6680% ownership interest in the building and the total assessed value of all units would then be $28,478,126. The board of review then stated that the subject unit has a 0.3630% ownership interest, which translates to a value of $103,376 and an assessment of $10,338, which would be above the current assessment. The board of review is requesting that the current assessment be confirmed based on this analysis.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the comparables submitted by the appellant. These comparables sold for prices ranging from $77.50 to $121.43 per square foot of living area, including land. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $78.79 per square foot of living area, including land, which is within the range established by the best comparable sales in this record. Based on this evidence the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
