FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Maria Kolpa
DOCKET NO.: 24-53053.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 12-23-427-005-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Maria Kolpa, the appellant, by attorney Andrew S. Dziuk, of Andrew Dziuk, Esq. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$9,375
IMPR.:	$18,372
TOTAL:	$27,747

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2024 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with a 1-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 1,154 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 75 years old. Features include a full basement, central air conditioning, and a 2-car garage.[1] The property has a 3,750 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity regarding the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood. The comparables are improved with class 2-03 homes of masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,184 to

[1] The Board finds the subject has central air conditioning according to Section III of the appellant's residential appeal petition and the board of review's grid analysis, which was unrefuted by the appellant.

1,380 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 57 to 81 years old. Three homes each have a crawl space or a slab foundation and two comparables each have a full or partial basement. Each comparable has a 1-car or a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $14,940 to $16,220 or from $11.27 to $13.10 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $27,747. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $18,372 or $15.92 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood. The comparables are improved with class 2-03 homes of frame, masonry, or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,154 to 1,162 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 78 to 100 years old. Each home has a full basement. Two homes each have central air conditioning. One comparable has one fireplace. Two comparables each have a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $18,550 to $20,000 or from $15.96 to $17.24 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The record contains a total of nine equity comparables for the Board's consideration with varying degrees of similarity to the subject in property characteristics. Nevertheless, the Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables #1 through #4, as well as board of review comparables #1, #2, and #4, which are less similar to the subject in age and/or foundation type than the two remaining comparables in this record. The appellant's comparable #5 and board of review comparable #3 are overall most similar to the subject in location, classification, foundation type, age, dwelling size, and some features. The two best comparables have improvement assessments of $16,220 and $18,550 or $13.10 and $15.96 per square foot of living area, respectively. The subject's improvement assessment of $18,372 or $15.92 per square foot of living area is bracketed by the two best comparables in this record. Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the two best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
