FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Jonathan Rosenband and Melissa Briskman
DOCKET NO.: 25-31700.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-19-300-026-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Jonathan Rosenband and Melissa Briskman, the appellant, by attorney Brian P. Liston, of the Law Offices of Liston & Tsantilis, P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND:	$52,497
IMPR.:	$52,503
TOTAL:	$105,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2025 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 2,152 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 117 years old. Features of the home include a basement, 2 full and 1 half bathrooms, central air conditioning, and a 2-car garage. The property has a 3,720 square foot site located in Chicago, Lake View Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-05 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three comparables located within the same assessment neighborhood as the subject property and within 0.50 of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-05, 2-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction containing 2,040 or 2,132 square feet of living area. The homes are 64 to 116 years old. Each comparable has a basement, 2 or 3 full bathrooms, two of which have 1 or 2 additional half bathrooms, and a 2-car garage. One comparable has central air conditioning, and one comparable has a fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $46,736 to $49,549 or from $22.83 to $23.24 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the improvement assessment be reduced to $49,302 or $22.91 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $105,000. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $52,503 or $24.40 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located within the subject's assessment neighborhood and within the subject's subarea and/or approximately ¼ of a mile from the subject. The comparables are improved with 2-story, class 2-05 dwellings of frame or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 2,108 to 2,184 square feet of living area. The homes are from 122 to 131 years old. Each comparable has a basement, either 1, 2 or 4 full bathrooms, three of which have 1 additional half bathroom, and a 2-car garage. Three comparables each have central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $56,002 to $59,003 or from $26.08 to $27.42 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested that the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted seven comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables and the board of review's comparable #4which differ in age and/or lack of central air conditioning when compared to the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review's comparables #1, #2 and #3 which are more similar to the subject in location, age, dwelling size, and most features. However, these comparables require adjustments for differences in bathroom counts when compared to the subject property. The best comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $56,002 to $56,950 or from $26.08 to $26.96 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $52,503 or $24.40 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the best comparables in the record. After considering the adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject property, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
